

General rules & conditions: Tomorrowland & DreamVille

(Present regulations will be made clearly visible at the entrance as stipulated by the law)

EXIT = NO RE-ENTRY

DON'T BRING FOOD, DRINKS, WEAPONS or DRUGS

Opening hours

Friday 27 July 2012, from 14h00 till 01h00

Saturday 28 July 2012, from 12h00h till 01h00

Sunday 29 July 2012, from 11h00 till 00h00

DreamVille open from Thursday 26 July 2012 (from 11h00) till Monday 30 July 2012 15h00

Article 1

Persons entering the festival grounds and/ DreamVille must review these regulations and accept and comply with the provisions.

Article 2

Every person presenting him or herself at the entrance of the festival grounds must be in possession of either a valid entry ticket or a special admission issued by the organiser. One entry ticket is only valid for 1 admission of 1 person and is only valid on the day or days of the festival indicated on the ticket.

Minimum age to enter the festival is 18. (People born in 1994 will be allowed to enter the festival, even when you turn 18 after the festival)

Are you younger than 18 you won't be allowed to enter, even not when older people or guardian accompany you.

When leaving the site, a new entry ticket is needed.

Forging the entry ticket or any other special admission to access the festival or camping site will be prosecuted without exception.

Each holder of an entry ticket or a special admission issued by the organiser is at the festival site or camping site at his or her own risk releasing the organiser from any liability, including theft and accidents.

Article 3

The entry ticket or pass is neither exchangeable nor refundable by the organisation.

Article 4

The entry ticket or admission pass must be given upon entering the event and/ or camping.

The organiser and/or the official ticket vendor reserve the right to check the identity of the festival attendee. Also on request of a security crewmember you must be able to legitimize yourself. If you're not able to show a valid ID, the access to Tomorrowland and DreamVille can be denied without the right of the refund for the entrance fee.

A valid ID is a Belgian identity card or a Belgian driver license (or of any other country). Copies will NOT be accepted.

Article 5

Access to the festival grounds and/or camping site is prohibited or refused to people who:

- ⤴ Are clearly under the influence of alcohol, drugs or any other stimulant.
- ⤴ Have been banned from festivals before, imposed by either the organiser or the administrative or legal authorities.
- ⤴ Show by manifest behaviour to have the intent to disturb public peace or to provoke such a thing by inciting to assault, hatred, rage, etc.
- ⤴ Resist the control and the non-systematic search by the festival's security guards and security services.
- ⤴ Refuse to declare objects that are considered to be dangerous or off-limits by the festival's security services (see article 7).
- ⤴ In any way act in violation of the provisions of one or more articles of these internal regulations.

Article 6

Every holder of an entry ticket or a special admission who desires to enter the festival grounds and/or camping site must submit to the ticket or special admission validation. Entering the festival grounds and/or camping site implies a possible search.

The security guards can ask the holders of an entry ticket or special admission of the same sex to voluntarily submit themselves to a superficial inspection of clothing and luggage, in order to detect objects that may, when brought to the festival grounds and/ or camping site, disrupt the course of the festival or the campsite, jeopardise the safety of the other festival goers and disturb the public peace.

The security guards may request to renounce these objects.

Article 7

It is forbidden for holders of an entry ticket or a special admission presenting themselves at the entrance of the festival grounds and/ or camping site, as well as the persons present on the festival grounds and/ or camping site to bring, have somebody else bring or be in possession of the following objects:

- Own drinks or food, bottles, glasses, drugs or stimulants and the like:
- People who require nutrients or medication for medical reasons (e.g. diabetes) must be in possession of a medical certificate.
- Deodorant or perfume in big bottles or sprays (cosmetics in normal shape and size are allowed (max size 50ml)).
- Any apparatus (umbrella, sunshade, tripod for (movie) camera, cane) considered dangerous by the security services to the other festival visitors may be refused.
- Projectiles or explosives in solid, liquid or gaseous form.
- Inflammable products or materials, sprays.
- Pyrotechnical objects such as Bengal lights, etc.
- Any weapon or dangerous, sharp or bruising object which could be used in such a way (sticks, chains, stabbing or thrust weapons and the like)
- Every item that can be used as a means to disturb the public peace, endanger the safety of the crowd and/or inflict damage to persons and goods.
- Making fire is prohibited.
- Everybody who enters the festival site declares to agree with the general conditions. Access to the festival site will be denied to everybody who does not follow these rules.

- Animals are not allowed on the festival grounds or on the camping site.

What's allowed: Guidance dogs for people with visual disability, simple disposable or pocket camera's, retractable umbrellas without pin (no parasols), plastic and blankets to sit on, suntan lotion, perfume bottles, deodorant, refreshment water in atomizer and small back-or other bags.

Article 8

On the festival grounds and on the camping site, it is strictly forbidden for holders of an entry ticket or a special admission to:

- Try to access inaccessible sections or to be in inaccessible sections of the site in accordance with the entry ticket or the special admission, such as production rooms, artists' lodges, neutral and VIP zones, press rooms, offices, backstage, etc.
- Climb tents, constructions, fences, closures, lighting columns, tables, benches or any other infrastructure of the site.
- Obstruct the accesses, exits and evacuation routes and to linger at these locations any longer than strictly necessary for entering or exiting the site.
- Disguise themselves or to avoid being recognised, to disturb the public peace and to compromise the safety of the general public.
- Sell drinks, food or any other product without the express consent of the organiser.
- Throw or to shoot with any object or liquid or any other product in loose or gaseous form.
- Smoke in areas where no smoking is allowed.
- Pee in public.
- All vehicles that are on the site must be equipped with a sticker, issued by the organisation. Offenders will be towed at the expense of the offender.

Article 9

Texts, symbols, images, gestures and obscene language inciting racism, xenophobia, provocation and discrimination are forbidden at the festival grounds and camping site.

Article 10

Festival visitors must heed the directions of the organiser or his appointed or mandated persons at all times on the festival grounds and camping site. Failure to comply will lead to a removal from the festival grounds and/or camping site. If necessary, the organiser may call on the police.

The holder of an entry ticket agrees to adhere to the instructions imposed by the organiser in the framework of the public peace and safety during the event.

Festival visitors who are removed from the festival grounds and/or camping site for any of the aforementioned reasons will be denied access to the festival grounds for the remainder of the festival, even if they are in possession of a new entry ticket or special admission.

In case the organiser denies somebody access to the festival grounds and/or camping site, the former is entitled to deprive that person of his entry ticket and to deny that person further access in order to prevent that person from trying to enter the site. If the organiser has that person removed from the site, the former is not obliged to refund the entry ticket.

Article 11

For safety reasons, the organiser reserves the right to:

- Interrupt or stop the festival.
- Provisionally keep the festival visitors on the site at the end of the festival.
- Totally or partially vacate the site.
- Deny access to the site regardless of the possession of a valid entry ticket.

The organiser may be forced to alter the programme or the timetable of the festival. In this case the entry ticket remains valid and it is neither exchangeable nor refundable. The organiser may be forced to alter the programme or the timetable of the festival. In this case the entry ticket remains valid and it is neither exchangeable nor refundable.

Article 12

In accordance with the law of 8 December 1992 on 'The protection of privacy in relation to the processing of personal data, modified by the Act of 11 December 1998 transposing Directive 95/46/EC of 24 October 1995 of the European Parliament and the Council on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data' the campsite visitor is informed that the organiser is collecting data because of security reasons and processes these in a database. This law regulates the processing and the right to consult personal data. The organiser can use the personal data obtained by purchasing the entry ticket for promotional purposes. All personal data of these records are according to the regulations of the law of 8/12/1992 on the protection of privacy.

Every person who enters the festival grounds agrees to the fact that he or she may be photographed and filmed and that the images can be registered and stored. These pictures or footage can be used by the organiser to promote Tomorrowland and/or Dreamville. Registering and storing these images by the police and/or organiser also takes place with the aim to ensure the enforcement of and compliance with the safety on the festival grounds.

The processing of the images aims to prevent crimes and violations to these internal regulations and to track down and facilitate sanctioning the perpetrators by means of identification.

Pictures or movies made by the festival visitors on the site may not be used for commercial or public purposes, unless with written consent of the organiser.

Article 13

Every year we invest a lot of effort and manpower in decorating the festival area, which contributes to the total Tomorrowland experience. Therefore we ask each and every one of you to show some respect for all the decoration! People who disobey this and who tear down some the decorations will be accompanied to the entrance and will be strictly forbidden to enter again!

Article 14

- Do not buy your ticket down on the street. It may have been forged. Only buy your tickets from authorized sale channels (www.tomorrowland.be)!
- Access to the festival ground can be refused or denied at all times.
- Clothes and/or other (visible) physical appearances, which express an explicit political, social movement or group, are forbidden.
- Nor the artists and the organisers of the festival, neither De Lijn can be held responsible for damage, loss, theft or any possible accident.
- Official T-shirts and souvenirs are only on sale within the Festival Ground.

- Festival tickets must not be used for commercial or promotional reasons without prior permission of the organiser.
- Festival tickets must not be resold without prior explicit permission of the official ticket vendor or the organiser. Festival tickets, which appear to have been resold without permission of the official ticket vendor and/or the organiser, do not grant their holder access to the festival ground. The organiser and/ or the official ticket vendor reserve the right to cancel festival tickets as soon as they notice that festival tickets are resold in spite of this ban. Expenses arising from such cancellation will be recovered from the buyer.
- Line-up changes are no ground for a full or partial refund of the festival ticket.
- Forgery of a festival ticket is liable to prosecution.

Article 15

- The festival is recorded for TV. You might be filmed. At arrival you give the organisation silent approval to multiply, exploit and broadcast these images/ photos
- At the festival site there will be camera surveillance according to the law of 21 March 2007.
- The organisers and/or the official ticket vendor reserve the right to check the identity of the festival attendee.

Article 16

The recreation area de Schorre, where Tomorrowland takes place, is situated in a nature area. That's why we want to ask all the visitors to contribute their mite to make sure the festival ground stays as clean as possible.

The collecting points for garbage on the festival ground will be clearly indicated. Use these points to dump your cups. You can also find garbage containers on the parking and DreamVille. Use them as much as possible!

The toilets at Tomorrowland & DreamVille are free to use. Again, like last year, there will be enough wooden floors underneath and surround the toilets. The toilets will also be cleaned regularly. There are special FreshPoints at the festival site where you can freshen up yourself. It's extremely forbidden to pee out in the open

Article 17

You are not allowed to distribute flyers or posters during the festival, not on the street, not at DreamVille nor on the festival ground. If you want to promote one of your events, we can give you the possibility to place an advertisement in the Tomorrowland newspaper that we distribute amongst the visitors.

More info: promotion@id-t.be

Article 18

Zero Tolerance drugs policy

Tomorrowland uses an absolute zero tolerance policy regarding drugs; Tomorrowland events are drug-free! It is forbidden to use drugs on at the festival grounds and camping site. If you're caught for using drugs, you'll be forced to leave the festival ground and/ or camping site. We will keep a keen eye to the respect of this rule.

It's forbidden to be in possession of drugs at the festival grounds and/ or camping site. When you're caught for possession of drugs, you'll be forced to leave the festival ground and/ or camping site. If necessary, the organiser may call on the police.

It's forbidden to deal drugs at the festival grounds and/ or camping site. When you're caught for dealing drugs, you'll be forced to leave the festival ground and/ or camping site. If necessary, the organiser may call on the police.

Before you enter the festival ground or camping site you have to possibility to dispose the drugs in special drugs boxes, this without any consequences.

Indications and instructions of the (security) crew must be followed. At suspicion of a prohibited offence at the festival ground and/or camping site the security is allowed to search. If you refuse an inspection, access to the festival ground and/ or camping site will be denied.

Article 19

There will be an ATM available on the festival ground and DreamVille. At most of the drink/ food tickets' desks you'll be able to pay with maestro card. Or the ticket vending machines give you the possibility to pay by card too.

Article 20

Official Tomorrowland merchandise is only available at the festival ground.

Article 21

Lockers will be provided at the festival area. You have to pay € 6 for a key, so you can use your locker continuously during the festival. To get your key, you will have to pay an extra € 5 warranty, which you will get back when you return your key.

Article 22

- The DreamVille ticket is only valid in combination with a Full Madness/Comfort Pass, not with a day festival ticket.
- The DreamVille ticket is valid during the whole weekend. There are no DreamVille tickets for only 1 day.
- The DreamVille ticket is valid per person and NOT per tent.
- In case of loss or theft of a DreamVille ticket, tickets will not be refunded or replaced.
- The DreamVille ticket guarantees a camping spot at one of the DreamVille zones. Reservations are not possible.
- Not allowed at DreamVille: cars, motor (cycles), trailers, caravans, mobilhomes, ...

Article 23

- A boozebag contains 35 drink and food tickets.
- Drink& food tickets in the boozebag are only valid on the festival ground, NOT at the camping site
- Boozebags can be changed in drink and food tickets at the DreamVille entrance (together with your DreamVille ticket and Full Madness/Comfort Pass) or at the Tomorrowland main entrance together with your festival ticket

Article 24

In collaboration with Intro, Tomorrowland puts in a great effort to make the festival accessible to people with disability. So we have paid a lot of attention to the accessibility of the festival site and its surroundings:

- Upon proof of the blue parking card, special reserved parking space is available. (Parking at Schommelei – main entrance)
- At the main entrance, an alternate cash register will be provided.
- At the main entrance there's an elevator especially for people with a disability. Two persons are allowed to accompany him/her through this entrance.
- Guidance dogs are allowed on the festival grounds. Make sure they are easy recognizable.
- Adapted toilets are situated in locations all over the festival site and at DreamVille.
- The accessibility on the festival grounds is guaranteed thanks to the wooden floors.
- There will be Intro-assistants present that can help where needed. At the start of the festival, these assistants can be found at the entrance. If assistance is needed at the festival site, they can always be called through the information booth.
- There will be a specially provided camping space at DreamVille. Please let us know in advance if you would like to use it.

Should you wish to make use of the aforementioned facilities? Have you got a handicap and are you facing any problems to which you can't find a solution? Would you just like some more information about this issue? Please send an e-mail to jelle@intro-events.be

Article 25

- The floor
Mud and slippery conditions need to be avoided in front of the stage. Therefore we place a solid floor in front of the outdoor stages and in the tents and surround the food areas.
- Video screens
At the outdoor stage we also show images on the big video screen, so everybody can see what's happening in the dj booth and can enjoy the show.
- In case situations happen, which are not written down in the general conditions, the organisation decides which possible measures to take. The decision of the organisation is final in these kinds of situations.

WHEN THESE GENERAL CONDITIONS ARE NOT FOLLOWED THE ACCESS WILL BE DENIED/ REFUSED WITHOUT REFUND OF THE ENTRANCE FEE. WHEN THE ACCESS IS BEING DENIED/ REFUSED YOU MUST LEAVE THE FESTIVAL GROUND OR CAMPING SITE IMMEDIATELY !

